Consequences of late or non-payment

If payment of the Amount Due noted on this Invitation to Pay is not received at this office by the Due Date the following will result:

| Ref Code | Consequences |
|----------|---|
| A01. | The application will lapse. |
| A02. | The patent will cease. |
| A03. | The request is not recorded as received or filed. |
| A04. | The Patent ceases at the due date for payment. |
| A05. | Appearance denied. |

Note: These fees must be received by IP Australia by the due date. Payment after this date is possible only if you can establish an error or omission or circumstances beyond your control which prevented you from paying the fee by the due date. This will require an extension of time request under section 223 of the Patents Act, a declaration setting out the circumstances that prevented you from paying the fee by the due date and the payment of additional fees for each month an extension is required. Note: A lack of funds is not an error, omission or a circumstance beyond your control which can be used to justify the grant of an extension of time. Should you require any additional information or explanation, please contact IP Australia on 1300 651 010.
