Your application summary

Innovation patent application details

Application number:	2020101069
Title:	Ensuring motor vehicle compliance using Blockchain technology. Ensuring motor vehicle compliance records are maintained, recorded and secured using a transparent and distributed system so that approved parties can verify the compliance of the vehicle. These records include service records, insurance records, at work mileages and any other motor vehicle-related documents. This will facilitate personal and fleet vehicle management including Grey fleet operations. Blockchain technology will be used to verify the documents and user data will be recorded both off-chain and on-chain.
